

Instructor: ..... Date: .....

Learner: ..... Regional Branch: .....

Program: ..... Center: .....

CONTENT

- Let's Start!
- Let's Explore!
- Let's Practice!
- Extension Activity
- Target Words
- Learning Points

Let's Start!

What do you think we should do?

Learning Outcome

Describe routines and regular activities in a wider range of social and work contexts.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about jobs and work.
- I can ask for and give opinions.
- I can agree politely.

Ask your partner:

- Have you been in a situation where you had to share your opinion with other people? What was the opinion you shared?
- Did other people agree or disagree with you?

Let's Explore!

Janet and Miranda have a meeting in her office. What are they talking about?

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Janet: OK, so it looks like we need to come to a decision about this Farmani's project today.
- Miranda: I agree. We need to be very specific in our sales pitch. We have to really impress them.
- Janet: I agree. We need to make sure they know what they are buying.
- Miranda: I agree up to a point. However, the best sales pitch is don't try to sell.
- Janet: Right. So, what do you think we should do?
- Miranda: Personally, I think we should start by showing self-assurance and building good rapport with our client.
- Janet: I think that's a fantastic idea. I'm sure you'd agree that creating a Business Link page would work.
- Miranda: Absolutely. If you ask me, I think that this is going to help attract more followers and we should post company updates to promote engagement.
- Janet: Definitely. What's your position on creating ads?
- Miranda: The way I see it, these ads could be targeted to specific audiences, industries, and regions.
- Janet: I like that idea. I'd say we also need to focus on our USP.
- Miranda: Right. Our Unique Selling Point will be creating publicity for their new clothing line and liaising with the media. I am going to finish working on our proposal and will send it to you for a quick review.

Let's Practice!

Janet and Miranda discuss the approach they are going to take with the sales pitch. Are they both on the same page*?

*To be "on the same page" with someone is to be in agreement or have the same understanding.

Instructions: Circle all the sentences that are phrases you use to agree politely.

Janet: OK, so it looks like we need to come to a decision about this Farmani's project today.

Miranda: I agree. We need to be very specific in our sales pitch.

Janet: We need to make sure they know what they are buying.

Miranda: Personally, I think we should start by showing self-assurance and building good rapport with our client.

Janet: I think that's a fantastic idea. I'm sure you'd agree that creating a Business Link page would work.

Miranda: Absolutely. If you ask me, I think that this is going to help attract more followers and we should post company updates to promote engagement.

Janet: Definitely. What's your position on creating ads?

Miranda: The way I see it, these ads could be targeted to specific audiences, industries, and regions.

Janet: I like that idea.

Let's Practice!

What does Miranda think about the sales pitch?

Instructions: Use the words from the word bank to correctly complete the sentences.

Word Bank

position / If you ask me, / How do you feel about / think / Personally, / I'd say we / They way I see it,

1. What do you _____ we should do?
2. _____ I think we should impress them.
3. _____ I think this is going to help us immensely.
4. What's your _____ on creating ads?
5. _____ these ads could be targeted to specific audiences.
6. _____ our USP?
7. _____ need to focus on our USP.

Extension Activity

Can you give your opinion?

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Read the situation.
- Choose the role you want.
- Practice talking about the situation in the role play. Continue speaking for as long as you can.
- Then, switch roles with your partner.

Self-Assessment

Yes No

I ask for an opinion in a meeting.

☐ ☐

I give my opinion in a meeting.

☐ ☐

I agree politely in a meeting.

☐ ☐

Situation:

Role 1: You are in a meeting at work. You are asked to share your opinion about a new software. Give your opinion.

Role 2: You are managing a meeting at work. You ask for an employee's opinion about a new software. Listen to their opinion. Agree with the their. Then, give your opinion. Change roles.

Target Words

- sales pitch (noun): a presentation you make to persuade people to buy something e.g. We need to be very specific in our sales pitch.
- self-assurance (noun): calmness; confidence
e.g. I think we should start by showing self-assurance.
- rapport (noun): friendly understanding between people
e.g. We need to build good rapport with our client.
- follower (noun): someone tracking a particular person, group or organization on social media
e.g. This is going to help the company attract more followers online.
- engagement (noun): when you become involved with someone or something in order to understand them e.g. It's important to post company updates to promote engagement with the public.
- selling point (noun): a particular quality that something has which will make people want to buy it e.g. We need to focus on our selling point and what makes us unique.
- to liaise (verb): to exchange information in order to be more effective e.g. We will be liaising with social media in order to create publicity for the company.

Learning Points

Taking Part in a Meeting

When you are taking part in a meeting, it is important to respond to the ideas that are being discussed. Sometimes you will agree and sometimes you will not. Here are some ways you can agree politely in English:

Agreeing

- I agree.
- Right!
- Absolutely.
- I'm sure you'd agree that ...
- Definitely.
- I think that's a fantastic idea.

You can also agree with someone but not entirely, especially when there is a doubt or you are not sure of agreeing with something completely.

Partial agreement

- I agree up to a point. However, ...
- That's true, but ...
- I agree with you in part, but ...
- I agree with you in part, but ...
- This is only partly true.

Learning Points

Asking for and Giving Opinions

When you are taking part in a meeting, it is important to ask for others' opinions on a subject as well as giving your own. Here are some ways you can ask for and give opinions.

| Asking for Opinions                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Giving Opinions                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Always ask questions that encourage a response: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• What do you think about/of ... ?</li> <li>• What's your position on ... ?</li> <li>• How do you feel (about ... )?</li> </ul> | When you give opinions, make your opinions less forceful by using neutral statements: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The way I see it ...</li> <li>• Personally, I think ...</li> <li>• If you ask me, ...</li> <li>• I'd say ...</li> </ul> |

Examples:

- What do you think about our sales pitch?
- What's your position on creating a website?
- The way I see it, the sales pitch really needs to impress them.
- Personally, I think the best sales pitch is don't try to sell.

