

Let's Practice!

Janet and Miranda discuss the approach they are going to take with the sales pitch. Are they both on the same page*?

*To be "on the same page" with someone is to be in agreement or have the same understanding.

Instructions: Circle all the sentences that are phrases you use to agree politely.

Janet: OK, so it looks like we need to come to a decision about this Farmani's project today.

Miranda: I agree. We need to be very specific in our sales pitch.

Janet: We need to make sure they know what they are buying.

Miranda: Personally, I think we should start by showing self-assurance and building good rapport with our client.

Janet: I think that's a fantastic idea. I'm sure you'd agree that creating a Business Link page would work.

Miranda: Absolutely. If you ask me, I think that this is going to help attract more followers and we should post company updates to promote engagement.

Janet: Definitely. What's your position on creating ads?

Miranda: The way I see it, these ads could be targeted to specific audiences, industries, and regions.

Janet: I like that idea.
