

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Please leave a message after the beep.

Learning Outcome

Describe routines and regular activities in a wider range of social and work contexts.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about jobs and work.
- I can leave a voicemail message.
- I can create a standard voicemail message.

Ask your partner:

- Have you ever heard of the expression phone tag? What do you think it means?
- Have you ever played phone tag with someone? What happened?

Let's Explore!

Janet and Farmani play phone tag.

* A situation in which two callers are trying to reach each other but instead reach each other's voicemail and leave messages.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Janet: Hello, you've reached Janet Allison with Polygon Public Relations Inc. I'm unable to take your call at the moment, so please leave your name, telephone number and a message after the beep and I will return your call as soon as possible. Thank you!

Farmani: Hello, Janet. This is Farmani from Holly's. I'm calling you to let you know that I still haven't received a proposal from Polygon. I was approached um, approached by another company who has shown interest in working with our new clothing line. Anyways, can you give me a call back to confirm that you are still interested? You can reach me at 555-825-5885. I'll be in the office until 5 o'clock. Thanks. Goodbye.

Farmani: Hello, you've reached Farmani. I'm afraid I'm not available to take your call right now, but if you leave a message with your name and number, I'll get back to you as soon as I can.

Janet: Hello, Mr. Farmani. This is Janet with Polygon Public Relations. I'm phoning in regards to our proposal. We have been working on it and should have it ready by the end of the week. I'm hoping that we could talk at some point regarding our plans for your company. You can reach me tomorrow anytime between 9 and noon at 555-390-0330. Thanks.

Let's Practice!

Janet needs your help! Can you help her record a standard voicemail message?

Instructions: Match the sentences in Column A with those in Column B. Read them aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

COLUMN A

1. Hello, you've reached
2. I'm unable to take
3. Please leave
4. I will return your
5. Thank

COLUMN B

- a. your name, telephone number and a
- b. call as soon as possible.
- c. you!
- d. Janet Allison with Polygon Relations Inc.
- e. your call at the moment.
- f. message after the beep.

Let's Practice!

Janet is leaving a message for Mr. Farmani. What does she say?

Instructions. Use the words from the box to correctly complete the text. Use capital letters where necessary. Read the text aloud.

Word Bank

Hello / reach me tomorrow / Thanks / in regards to / This is

_____, Mr. Farmani. _____ Janet with Polygon Public Relations. I'm phoning _____ our proposal. We have been working on it and should have it ready by the end of the week. I'm hoping that we could talk at some point regarding our plans for your company. You can _____ anytime between 9 and noon at 555-390-0330. _____.

Extension Activity

Let's create a voicemail message!

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- You are setting up your voicemail.
- You have to create a standard voicemail message.
- Write what you will include in your voicemail message.
- Read it aloud.
- Your partner will leave a voicemail for you. Listen to your partner leave the message.
- Switch roles.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I create a standard voicemail message.

☐ ☐

I leave a voicemail message.

☐ ☐

I listen to a friend's voicemail.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- to approach (verb): to ask someone to do something
e.g. We were approached by another PR company.
- to show interest (expression): to want to know or learn more about something e.g. They have shown interest in working with our clothing line.
- in relation to (expression): in connection with something
e.g. I'm phoning in relation to our proposal.
- to have (something) ready (expression): to prepare for use
e.g. We should have it ready by the end of the week.
- regarding (preposition): about e.g. I'm hoping we could talk regarding our plans for your company.
- to reach (verb): to speak to someone on the telephone
e.g. You can reach me tomorrow anytime after 9.

Learning Points

Creating A Standard Voicemail Message

When people call and can't reach you, they can leave a voicemail message. Here are different ways of creating your own voicemail message:

Recording a voicemail message

- Hello, you've reached Carole Smith with A&R company. I'm unable to take your call at the moment. Please leave your name, telephone number and a message after the beep and I will return your call as soon as possible. Thank you!
- Hello. You've reached 555-222-6789. Please leave a detailed message after the beep.
- Hi, this is Liz Deslippe. I'm sorry I'm not available to take your call at this time. Leave a message and I'll get back to you as soon as I can.

Learning Points

Leaving A Standard Voicemail Message

When you call someone and they don't answer the telephone, you will need to leave a voicemail message.

When you leave a voicemail message, you need to make sure that the person who should receive your message has all the information he or she needs. The chart below outlines all the information you need to include when leaving a voicemail message:

1. Introduction	• Hello, this is Rod Ellis. OR • Hello, My name is Rod Ellis. (slightly more formal)
2. Reason for calling (you can say the time of day)	• I am calling to let you know that I still haven't heard from you. OR • It's ten in the morning. I'm phoning to find out if ...
3. Make a request	• Can you you give me a call back to confirm your interest in the project? • Could ring me back? • Would you mind calling me back?
4. Leave your contact number	• You can reach me at 555-825-5885. • My number is ... • Call me at ...
5. Ending	• Thanks. Goodbye. • Thanks a lot, bye. • I'll talk to you later, bye.

Examples:

• Hello, Maria. This is Mark. I am calling to let you know that I still haven't received the report. Can you give me a call back to confirm you are sending me the reports today? You can reach me at 555-416-5221. Thanks a lot, bye.

