

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

It's time to meet an important person!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use important information about people's jobs and places of work in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- Have you met someone important?
Who was it?
- What did you both talk about?
- Which important person would you like to meet?

Can Do Statements

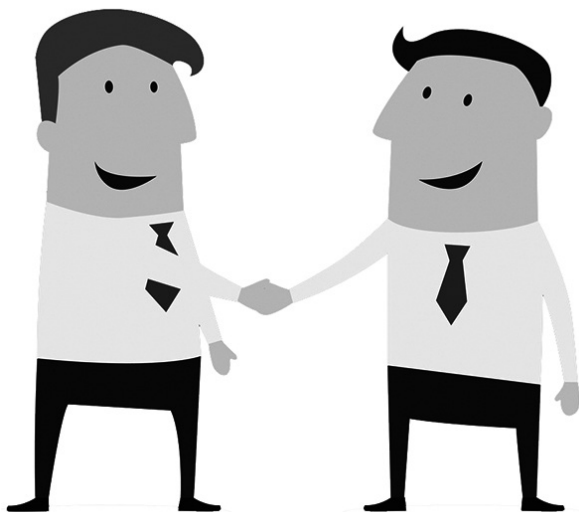

- I can talk about behavior and personality appropriate for jobs and work.
- I can talk about jobs and work.
- I can start a conversation with someone I don't know.

Let's Explore!

Peter meets his boss. What happens?

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Receptionist: Good afternoon. How can I help you?

Peter: Good afternoon, my name's Peter Smith. I have a meeting with Ms. Ellison at 3 pm.

Receptionist: Ah yes. You are here quite early. Please take a seat. I'll let Ms. Ellison know you're here.

Peter: I like to be punctual.

Janet: Mr. Smith? I'm Janet Ellison. Pleasure to meet you.

Peter: And you, Ms. Ellison.

Janet: How was the drive? Was the traffic OK?

Peter: Yes, everything was fine, thanks.

Janet: Now from what I remember, you worked for Mechatech and you were responsible for communications.

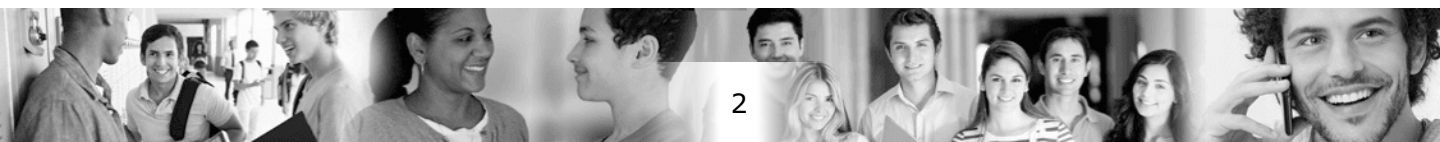

Peter: That's right. I worked in the software department and also looked after some of our accounts.

Janet: Impressive. Sounds like you have the necessary qualifications for this position. We wanted someone who is proficient and skillful.

Peter: Thanks. That's very thoughtful of you to say.

Janet: You will also be working closely with Miranda Morehouse if she accepts the position. She will be the head of the fashion department. She will be in charge of establishing, maintaining and acquiring new clients. Her resume is quite compelling.

Peter: I can't wait! I look forward to meeting her!

Let's Practice!

Janet describes the ideal* candidate. What are some words she can use?

*"Ideal" is an adjective. It means the best or most suitable for something.

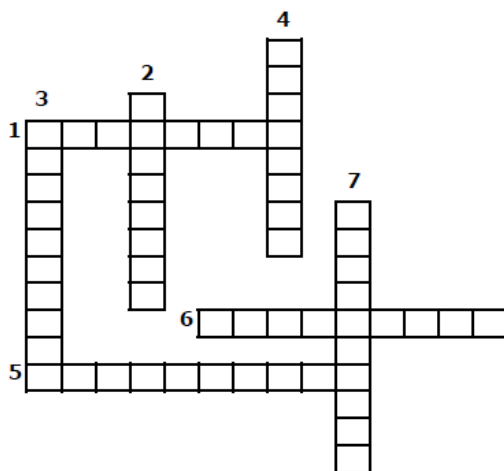

Instructions: Read the clues. Write the corresponding word in the crossword.

Down

2. A department in a company that is responsible for keeping records of the amount of money spent and received.
3. Able to do something well.
4. Showing a lot of ability.
7. Something that can capture your interest or attention.

Across

1. Someone who is always on time.
5. Thinking of things you can do or say to make people happy.
6. The person in charge of a department.

Let's Practice!

Peter has to speak to the receptionist. What does he say?

Instructions: Circle all the sentences that can be used to start a conversation. Read the sentences aloud. Check your pronunciation with your partner. pronunciation with your instructor.

1. Good afternoon. How can I help you?
2. Pleasure to meet you.
3. I worked for MechaTech.
4. I was responsible for communication.
5. Good afternoon, my name's Jack Smith.

Extension Activity

Can you describe your boss?

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Imagine you are working and have to write about your boss.
- Use adjectives to describe their personality and behaviour in the office. Are they caring? Are they mean?
- Write a short paragraph about your boss, include 70-80 words in your paragraph.
- Proofread your paragraph. Then, read your paragraph aloud to a partner.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I write about my boss.

☐
☐

I write about their job.

☐
☐

I use adjectives to describe their personality and behaviour.

☐
☐

Target Words

- punctual (adjective): someone who is always on time
e.g. I like to be punctual.
- to be responsible for (verb): to be in charge of Example: I was responsible for communications.
- accounts (noun): a department in a company that is responsible for keeping records of the amount of money spent and received e.g. I looked after some of the company's accounts as well.
- to work closely with (expression): to work together with another person
e.g. You will be working closely with the members of that department.
- proficient (adjective): able to do something well
e.g. We are looking for someone who is proficient.
- skillful (adjective): showing a lot of ability
Examples: He is very skillful.
- thoughtful (adjective): thinking of things you can do or say to make people happy
Example: Thanks for being so thoughtful.
- the head of (expression): the person in charge of a department
e.g. She is the head of the fashion department.
- compelling (adjective): something that can capture your interest or attention
e.g. Her résumé is quite compelling.

Learning Points

Language for Talking About Jobs & Work

In English, it is important to talk about jobs, what they involve and what you are responsible for in a company. Look at how the following words are used:

Work

work for	a company
work in	a department
work as	a manager (job)
work with	the president (someone)

- He worked for MechaTech.
- He worked in the sales department.
- He worked as an assistant.
- He worked closely with the CEO.

Look After, Deal With

You look after: • accounts • equipment • details	You deal with: • problems • people • customers / clients
---	---

- He was looking after the accounts and dealing with clients.

Be responsible for / be in charge of

be responsible for be in charge of	• noun • -ing
---------------------------------------	------------------

- She was responsible for communications.
- He is in charge of acquiring new clients.

Head of

- She's the head of the Fashion department.

You could also say

Learning Points

- She runs the Fashion department.
- She is in charge of the Fashion department.

Language For Starting a Conversation With a Stranger

There are certain expressions and words you use to greet and start a conversation with a stranger. Look at the charts below.

Meeting Someone You Don't Know	Responses
Pleased/Nice/Lovely to meet you.	You too. And you!

Follow-up Questions	Responses
How was your trip/drive/journey ?	Not bad, thanks. Yes, everything was fine, thanks.
Was the traffic OK? How are you finding it here? It is very busy, isn't it?	Yes, it is. But I'm really enjoying it, thanks. It's not bad. I'm having a good time.

Examples:

- My name's Michael Carter. Pleased to meet you.
- And you, Mr. Carter. I'm Robert Amo.
- How was your drive? Was the traffic alright?
- Yes, everything was fine, thanks.

