

Let's Practice!

Peter is in a meeting but he wants some clarification. What does he say?

Instructions: Circle all the correct answers.

1. Which statements could Peter use to express a lack of understanding?
 - a. Yes, I have.
 - b. Sorry, I'm not sure I am following you.
 - c. Excuse me?
 - d. Could you repeat that, please?
 - e. I beg you pardon, but I don't quite understand.
2. Which questions could Peter use to ask for clarification?
 - a. Has everyone got a copy of the agenda?
 - b. I'm sorry. Could you elaborate on that?
 - c. I'm not sure I know what you mean.
 - d. Excuse me, could you be more specific?
 - e. Do you mean this report?

Let's Practice!

Let's review the meeting!

Instructions: Read the clues on the left. Place a check mark in the correct box in the table. There is only one per clue.

	Opening the Meeting	Introducing the Agenda	Welcoming Participation	Closing the Meeting
Let's get down to business.
Do you have any ideas Peter?
The first thing in the Agenda is new potential client.
Thank you for all your contributions and for attending today.
I think this pretty much brings us
I think that this pretty much brings us to the end of our meeting.
Thank you all for making it on such short notice.
Now I'd like us to turn to the next point on the Agenda.				