

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

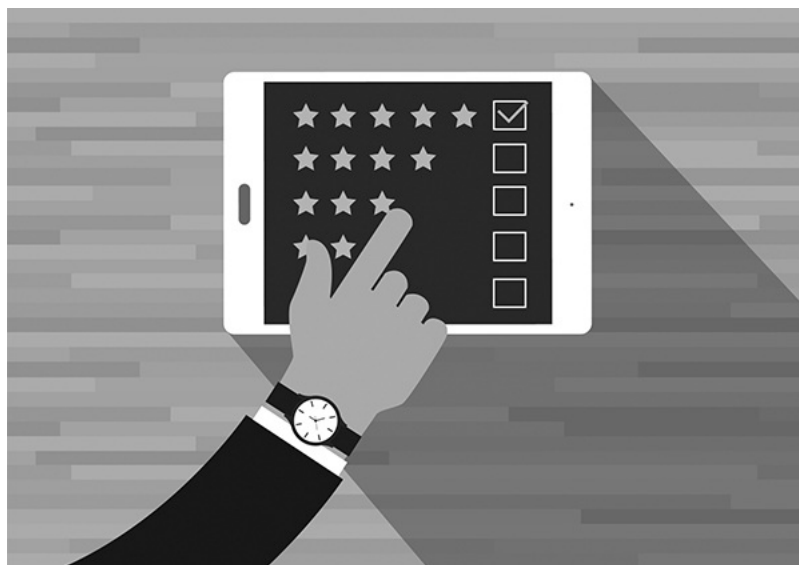

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Let's review!

Learning Outcome

Describe routines and regular activities in a wider range of social and work contexts.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about jobs and work.
- I can ask for clarification.
- I can start a conversation with someone I know.

Ask your partner:

- How do you start a conversation with someone you know?
- How do you start a conversation with someone you don't know?

Let's Explore!

Peter talks to his mom about his new job. What will he tell her?

* Remember, when you talk about "jobs", you can use phrases like work with, look after and deal with.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Peter's Mom: Hello, Peter. You look good. How are you doing? I'm glad you still remember you have a mother.

Peter: Hi, mom. It's been a while. How are things on your end? I've been really busy.

Peter's Mom: Not too bad. What do you mean busy? You're never busy.

Peter: Ha ha. Very funny. I don't know if I mentioned, but I got the job. I am now working for that multinational PR agency.

Peter's Mom: Congrats! I'm not sure I know what you mean though. Could you elaborate on that?

Peter: It's a public relations and social media company. They're responsible for publicity and public image.

Peter's Mom: Sorry, Peter. You're breaking up. My reception is really bad. I don't quite understand what you're saying. Could you repeat that?

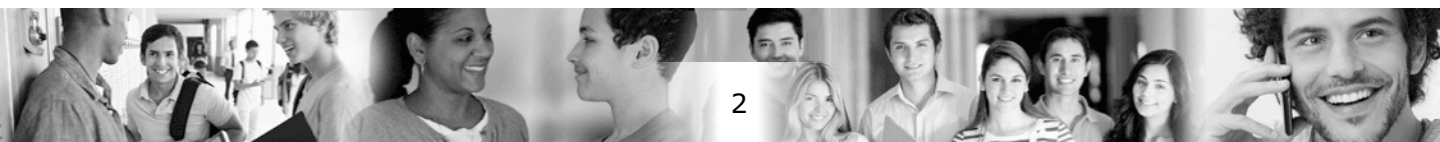

Peter: Basically, I'm Janet's, who is the CEO, personal assistant and work closely with the head of fashion and media.

Peter's Mom: Do you mean you play a role in the projects? More importantly, are you eating well?

Peter: Yes, mom! This new job is really demanding. I've been working long hours and haven't had much time to socialize at all.

Peter's Mom: I know what you mean, Peter. Just take good care of yourself and don't work too hard.

Peter: Thanks, mom. I won't.

Let's Practice!

Peter's mom asks Peter for clarification. What does she say?

Instructions: Circle the correct words to complete the sentences.

1. I'm (not / know / mean) sure I (not / know / mean) what you (not / know / mean) .
2. I don't (beg your pardon / I follow you / quite understand) .
3. Could you (mean / elaborate / clarify) that, please?
4. (Do you mean / What do you / Could you repeat) you play a major role?

Let's Practice!

Peter tells his mom about the conversation he had with the new member of his team.

Instructions: Read the words and place them into the correct category.

Nice to meet you.

Was the traffic OK?

How are you doing?

You look good!

How are things on your end?

It's been a while

Starting a conversation with Someone You Know	Starting a conversation with Someone You Don't Know

Extension Activity

Can you start a conversation?

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Imagine you run into one of your old friends. Write a dialogue about the conversation.
- Remember to use expressions to start a conversation with someone you know.
- Ask about their job and the work they do.
- Ask for clarification in the conversation.
- Proofread your dialogue.
- Practice reading your dialogue aloud.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I start a conversation with someone I know.

☐
☐

I ask for clarification in a conversation.

☐
☐

I talk about jobs and work.

☐
☐

Target Words

- multinational (adjective): in many different countries
e.g. They are a multinational company.
- agency (noun): a business that provides a particular service for people or organizations
e.g. I work for a PR agency.
- to be responsible for (expression): to be in charge of e.g. The agency is responsible for a number of different things.
- publicity (noun): attention in magazines, newspapers, or television e.g. I help create publicity for their new clothing line.
- public image (noun): the ideas and opinions that the public has about a person or an organization
e.g. Our clients want to improve their public image.
- CEO (noun): short for Chief Executive Officer, the person with the most authority in a large company e.g. I work with Janet. She is the CEO of Polygon.
- to work closely with (expression): to work together with another person e.g. I work closely with members of the advertising team.
- to play a role (expression): to have an influence on something e.g. Do you play a role in all their projects?

Learning Points

Starting a Conversation With Someone You Know

Remember in English, there are certain expressions and words you use to greet and start a conversation with someone you know.

Review the charts below.

Saying Hello		Follow-up
• Hi! • Hello! • Hey! • Hiya!		• It's great/nice/good to see you • It's been ages/a while. • You look well/good!

Responses	Questions	Responses
• And you! • You too!	• How are you doing? • How are things?	• Good, thanks. • Very well, thanks. • Not too bad, thanks.

Asking for Clarification

Remember when you don't understand what was said, or something was not clear to you, it is important to express your lack of understanding and seek clarification from the person you are talking to.

Expressing lack of understanding	Asking for clarification
• Sorry, I am not sure I am following you. • I beg your pardon, but I don't quite understand. • I'm not sure I know what you mean. • I'm not sure I follow you.	• Could you elaborate on that? • Could you be more specific? • Could you repeat that, please? • Could you clarify that, please? • Do you mean ... ? • What do you mean?

