

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

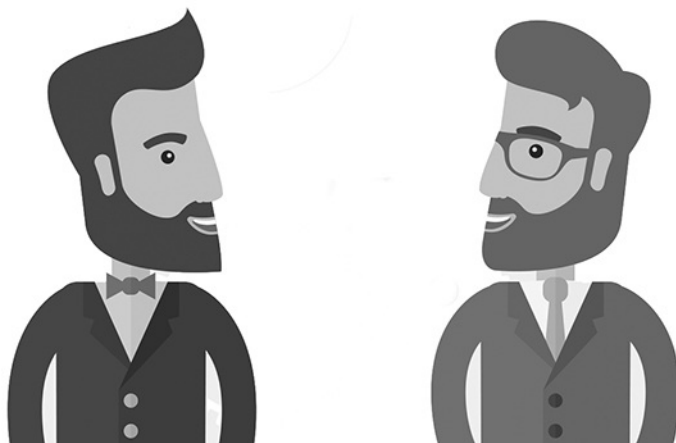

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Could you tell me about your company?

Learning Outcome

Describe routines and regular activities in a wider range of social and work contexts.

Can Do Statements

- I can start and end a conversation on the phone.
- I can make and respond to requests.
- I can keep the conversation going.

Ask your partner:

- How do you keep a conversation going? What do you say?
- Is it important to ask a lot of questions when you are having a conversation? Why or why not?

Let's Explore!

Miranda receives a call from Farmani. They want to hire a PR agency !

* A business that specializes in "PR" (Public Relations) services.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Miranda: Miranda Morehouse speaking.
- Farmani: Good afternoon, Ms. Morehouse. This is Farmani – CEO of Holly's.
- Miranda: Oh, hello Mr. Farmani. Glad to finally have a chance to speak with you. I've heard so much about you.
- Farmani: All good things I hope. So, Ms. Morehouse, what is this about?
- Miranda: Well, I heard through the grapevine that Holly's is looking to hire a PR agency. Would you mind telling me more about it?
- Farmani: Not at all. Holly's is a mid-range chain of department stores with more than 300 stores across North America. Because we are growing fast, we are looking into hiring a PR agency to manage our image as well as creating publicity for our new clothing line.
- Miranda: Oh, that sounds great. Could you possibly tell me more about it?
- Farmani: Sure. This PR agency will play a role in managing our company's communication with the media and helping us organize special events to promote our clothes.
- Miranda: It sounds very exciting. I am sure Polygon and I, personally, are prepared for deadlines and the long hours expected to put in with a PR job.
- Farmani: I'm glad to hear that. Do you mind sending me a proposal with your visions and ideas?
- Miranda: Absolutely. We have experienced professionals that can definitely help you and your company. Thank you for your time, Mr. Farmani. Bye for now.

Let's Practice!

Did you hear? Miranda wants to keep the conversation going.

Instructions: Read the dialogue. Circle all the sentences or expressions that are used to keep the conversation going. Read the sentences aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

Farmani: Good afternoon, Ms. Morehouse. This is Giorgio Farmani – CEO of Holly's.

Miranda: Oh, hello Mr. Farmani. Glad to finally have a chance to speak with you. I've heard so much about you.

Farmani: All good things I hope. So, Ms. Morehouse, what is this about?

Miranda : Well, I heard through the grapevine that Holly's is looking into hiring a PR agency.

Farmani: Yes, because we are growing fast, we are looking into hiring a PR Agency to manage our image as well as creating publicity for our new clothing line.

Miranda : It sounds very exciting. I am sure Polygon and I, personally, are prepared for deadlines and the long hours expected to put in with a PR job.

Farmani: I'm glad to hear that. Do you mind sending me a proposal with your visions and ideas?

Let's Practice!

Miranda has a request, can you help her?

Instructions: Organize the mystery sentences. Read the sentences aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

1. ? / to / speak / I / Ms. / Morehouse / Could

2. moment / a / you / please / ? / hold / for / Can

3. you / mind / Do / ? / proposal / sending / a / me

4. mind / telling / Would / ? / me / it / about / more / you

Extension Activity

Let's chat on the phone!

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Write a dialogue (70-80 words) about a phone conversation.
- Use expressions to start a phone conversation.
- Within the phone conversation, include a request and a response to that request.
- Remember to use phrases to keep the conversation going and to the end the conversation.
- Practice reading the dialogue aloud with a partner.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I start and end a conversation on the phone.

☐ ☐

I make and respond to requests on the phone.

☐ ☐

I use phrases to keep the conversation going.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- CEO (noun): short for Chief Executive Officer, the person with the most authority in a large company e.g. This is Mr. Farmani, CEO of Holly's.
- agency (noun): a business that provides a particular service for people or organizations
e.g. Holly's is looking into hiring a PR agency.
- mid-range (adjective): not the most expensive or the cheapest e.g. We offer a mid-range of clothing.
- chain (noun): a number of shops owned or managed by the same person e.g. There are more than 300 stores in our chain.
- department store (noun): a large shop that is divided into separate departments, each selling a different type of goods e.g. We are a mid-range chain of department stores.
- to look into (verb): to try to find out about something e.g. We are looking into hiring a PR firm.
- to play a role (expression): to have an influence on something
Example: We want a PR firm that will play a role in managing our company's communication.
- proposal (noun): a plan which is presented to a company to consider e.g. Do you mind sending me a proposal with your ideas?

Learning Points

Making And Responding To Requests

When talking to people you know or do not know, it is important to be polite when you ask for something.

You can make requests by using:

- Can you ...?
- Could you ... ?
- Will you ... ?
- Would you mind ... ?
- Do you mind ... ?
- Is it OK if I ... ?

You can respond to requests by saying:

- Sure, here you are.
- Absolutely.
- Okay.
- Not at all.

Things to remember when making a request

"Would you mind ... ?" and "Do you mind ... ?" are followed by 'verb + -ing'

"Can you ... ?", "Could you ... ?", "Will you ... ?", "Is it OK if I ... ?" are followed by a base form verb.

Examples:

- Do you mind sending me the reports?
- Not at all.
- Could you tell me a bit more about it?
- Absolutely.

Learning Points

Starting And Ending A Phone Conversation

It is common that English speakers make phone calls either for business purposes or personal reasons. These are expressions you can use when having conversations on the phone.

Answering the phone	Introducing yourself
• Hello? (informal) • Thank you for calling Polygon. How can I help you?	• Hey Giorgio. It's Marie calling. (informal) • Hello, this is Janet Ellison calling. • Hi, it's Farmani from Holly's here. • This is she * • Speaking * (You say this when the caller is asking for you or does not recognize your voice)
Asking to speak to someone	Connecting someone
• Is Janet in? (informal) • Is Janet there, please? (informal) • Could I speak to Janet, please?	• Just a sec. I'll get him (informal) • Hang on a second. • Please hold. • One moment please.
Making special requests	Ending a conversation
• Could you please repeat that? • Would you mind telling me more about that? • Can you call me back? I think we have a bad connection.	• Thanks for calling. Bye for now. • I'll talk to you again soon. Bye. • I have to let you go now.

